Som sagt var det inte lite märkligt att bli ombedd att skicka annons i PNG vilket är ett format gjord för annat. Om du köpt denna tidning bör du fundera över varför och vem som gjort den. Nämligen en som ej kan det som krävs. Jag (personligen) avråder fler köp./Molle, rich mollinder

a chat with SIMON WHYBRAY

Me and Simon met on a Friday not long ago when he came to the office together with our mutual friend Stephanie. He handed me his business card. A sleek shiny card, the one that usually serves as a keycard. On one side his name, and nothing else, was printed in big black Helvetica letters with a red wavy line beneath his last name as if to mark it was being spelled incorrectly.

“And if someone wants to find you?”

“Then all they have to do is google my name.”

Meet Simon Whybray. Probably born and most likely also raised on the internet.
